Robinson Value Management Featured in MarketWatch

San Antonio. September 17, 2012 - Robinson Value Management has been featured in a MarketWatch article titled "Contrarian ETF managers find ways to outperform".

"Risk and volatility persist despite, and at times because of, governments' efforts to manage the economy", said Amy Abbey Robinson, CIMA®, CEO of Robinson Value Management. "The Market Opportunity strategy is designed to benefit from the volatility that occurs when macro-economic and behavioral factors overwhelm company specific fundamentals."

About Robinson Value Management, Ltd.

Robinson Value Management, Ltd. is an independent investment management firm, not affiliated with any parent organization. Founded in 1997, Robinson Value Management is a registered investment advisor and serves both individual and institutional clients. The name was changed to Robinson Value Management, Ltd. from Robinson & Wilkes, Ltd. on December 31, 2008.

The Market Opportunity composite includes all fee-paying, fully discretionary accounts participating in market timing and select tactical investments. The approach uses margin, imbedded in ETF's, to establish short and leveraged long positions. Leveraged long positions and short positions involve considerable risk and are not suitable for many investors.

Robinson Value Management, Ltd. claims compliance with Global Investment Performance Standards (GIPS®). A copy of the verification report is available upon request. To receive a complete list and description of Robinson Value Management Composites and/or a presentation that adheres to the GIPS standards, please call (210) 490-2545, email amy@robinsonvalue.com, visit www.robinsonvalue.com, or write to Robinson Value Management, Ltd., 342 West Woodlawn Avenue, #201, San Antonio, Texas 78212.
